A Two-day Workshop on UBA-RURAL IMMERSION & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

(21st -22nd JUNE-2019)

NSS -AGI has organized a Two-day Workshop on UBA-RURAL IMMERSION & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT on 21st & 22nd JUNE-2019 the resource person Mr. Ramesh Vavilala, Faculty of Higher Education, MHRD started his speech about the different problems being faced by the rural people including sanitation, water facilities, education, the different self employment schemes provided to unemployed etc.,

In the Interactive session the participants shared their own experiences of problems faced in their native places, villages and small towns and how they strive to overcome them.

In the Afternoon session of first day, Participants were asked to put on their Model/Dream Village on the charts provided by dividing them into number of groups. Then there was a discussion session on it.

Participants are:

M.Madhavi - Asst.Prof -MBA, P.Kalpana -Asst.Prof - MBA,

Dr.Tejasvi - Asst.Prof -H&S, Ajitha -Asst.Prof - EEE

On Day-2 of workshop, all the participant along with the Resource person visited a village called "Karremula" in Medchal district.

There we all participated in the ongoing Gramsabha and discussed about the problems of the villagers. Then we, the participants in groups visited through the village and spoke to the people regarding the village issues and suggested the related central government scheme with the help of resource person.

The workshop made us to get the knowledge on various problems faced by villagers and the way through which they can get the helping hand from the govt. to solve them.
