

COMMENDABLE JOURNEY OF CELEBRATIONS AT AGI

Spectacular Celebrations of International Women’s Day on 7th and 8th March’19 with the theme, Women’s Role: Status and Challenges in Economical and Social Development by Anurag Group of Institutions has been a moment of great pride.

The journey has been Enthusiastic, Pleasurable and exuberant.

The seed for equal platform was sown by our Secretary Ma’am Mrs. Neelima -

“A woman who always personified Perseverance and Strength.”

Ms. Adela, Chief Experiencing Officer , Chezuba, Mrs. Vakati Karuna , IAS , Mrs. Deepika Reddy, Kuchipudi Dance Exponent were a part of the rave-up.

New Opportunities will always be learning experiences, which facilitates us to come out of our comfort zone and explore new endeavors. Nutritional aspect of women was prioritized. Education, Employment, has to be enhanced and Rights of women to be protected and sustained. Work Life Balance is matter of great concern in the present scenario. Gender equality should be the need of an hour. Passion, Perseverance, and Arduous are required to be successful in life.

Empowerment of women is only possible through Education and Employment.

Women should play a pivotal role in the Policy Making to widen the horizon of opportunities for women.

Games and Competition for Students and Staff were part of the revelry.

AGI Women exhibited their culinary skills and the funds collected were contributed towards a noble cause – Orphanage

Last but not the least, AGI women will continue to march ahead with a spirit to progress.

